

Biography

Sarah Glenn is a Textile Conservator at the Victoria and Albert Museum. She graduated from the Textile Conservation Centre, Winchester in 2008 with an MA in Textile Conservation. Following graduation, she undertook a short term contract at the National Trust Textile Conservation Studio and joined the V&A in August 2008 on a permanent basis.