

Supriya Roy has worked in Rabindra-Bhavana, the Tagore Memorial Museum, Archives and Research Centre of Visva-Bharati as Librarian and Archivist for three decades. The Content Writer in the Multimedia Project on Tagore, her publications include, Rabindra-Bhavana Uttarayana: an Introduction, Tagoreana in the Modern Review, and Makers of a Mission. She has edited The English Writings of Rabindranath Tagore in the Visva-Bharati Quarterly, Vol. 1: Poems. In her book, Talks in Japan she has collected and edited the talks given by Tagore in Japan. As series editor of the Tagore Travelogues for Visva-Bharati she has edited Journey to Persia and Iraq, 1932, Letters from a Sojourner in Europe and Letters from Java: Rabindranath Tagore's Tour of Southeast Asia.

She edited the Visva-Bharati News and the Rabindra-Bhavananewsletter for a number of years. She prepared the Permanent Photograph Gallery on the life of Rabindranath for the Rabindranath Tagore Institute in Mauritius. She has curated an exhibition for ICCR, Rabindranath Tagore and the Romance of Travel in 2009. This year she curated another exhibition for ICCR, Rabindranath Tagore: Pilgrimages to the East.